

Friday, April 3, 2020 - Sunday, April 12, 2020

THE LET GO" BY NICK CAVE

♀ Festival Hall

Free and open to the public! Internationally acclaimed, Chicago-based artist Nick Cave brings his interactive performance installation, The Let Go, to Navy Pier's Festival Hall this April for its Chicago debut. Following a much-celebrated run in 2018 at the Park Avenue Armory in New York, which also commissioned the work, this dance-based town hall-part art installation, part music venue, and part dance club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation, part music venue, and part dance club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation, part music venue, and part dance club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation, part music venue, and part dance club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation, part music venue, and part dance club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation are club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation are club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation are club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation are club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation are club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation are club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation are club-is an exciting and the state of the part art installation are club-is an exciting an exciting are club-is are club-is an excitingengaging opportunity for the community to come and "let go" through dance and movement.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

During select hours, a variety of Chicago dance companies, choreographers and organizations will perform, and instigators will lead group dances to liven the crowd. From families and art lovers to adults and children of all ages, all Chicagoans and visiting guests are invited to immerse themselves in The Let Go.

PHOTO CREDITS

Header photo: James Prinz Photography. Courtesy of Nick Cave and Jack Shainman Gallery, New York

Photos in description: Da Ping Luo